GAN has installed its PlayLive! brand for iGaming with The Cordish Companies in Pennsylvania.

This will allow the state's customers with Live! Rewards to enroll online for the program and engage in internet slots, table games and other online games.

This is the third contract for GAN in Pennsylvania.

GAN has contracted with Laguna Development's Route 66 Casino near Albuquerque for its simulated gaming software.

Services are expected to begin in the third quarter.

This launch is GAN's 18th simulated gaming contract in the US.

The agreement also states that Gan will be able to supply online sports wagering to Laguna in the future if legislation in the state passes to allow it.

GAN was chosen by Penn National to be its software service provider powering its mychoice social casino app for Penn Interactive.

GAN's Simulated Gaming software enables operators to provide B2B social gaming offerings in advance of real-money iGaming.

The app is integrated with Penn's mychoice player rewards program that reaches over 20 million members in 41 properties and 19 states.

Scientific Games. SportCaller will be supplying virtual sports games to Scientific's OpenMarket sports betting platform.

SportCaller will offer its free-to-play portfolio to operators on the OpenMarket platform, which is Scientific's first platform model for sports betting.

Scientific Games extended its contract by two more years with the Minnesota Lottery and will supply instant games through June 2022.

Sci Games has been supplying the Minnesota Lottery since it began in 1990.

Scientific Games has launched sports betting at FireKeepers Casino in Michigan, owned by the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Pottawatomi.

Scientific is also working with the tribe to offer its OpenGaming and OpenSports products if legislation allows it in the state where a new bill is being considered.

This is the first tribal operator to go live with sports betting in the state.
